

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE DAY

Chris Corbin during the game against Kazakhstan

Our men's water polo team has recovered from their first round loss to Hungary by narrowly def Kazakhstan, 9-8, at Ataturk Swimming Pool today.

In an aggressive match the two teams were neck and neck for the first two periods with Kazakhstan going to halftime one goal ahead.

Goals by Chris Corbin, Anthony Martin and Luke Gavin in the third quarter edged Australia into the lead, John Fox's men outscoring their opponents three goals to one in the period, to take a 6-5 advantage into the last break.

Scoring three times each in the final session Australia clung to their one goal lead to take a well deserved victory in the game marred by two Kazakhstan players being ejected for brutality.

In basketball, Australia's winning run at the tournament came to an end with the men's team going down 68-65 in a spiteful match against Lithuania.

In the fourth quarter Australian Ian Crosswhite and Lithuanian's Darius Pakamanis and Paulis Pociupa were ejected from the game and played no further part in the match after Crosswhite was pushed into the goal post by Pakamanis before retaliating.

Top scorers for Australia were Simon Conn & John Phillip (10) followed by Ben Hunt (9).

Briony Cole and Alex Croak finished eleventh and twelfth respectively in the one metre springboard on the opening day of diving at Narlidere Swimming Pool.

In the men's 3m synchronised springboard Australian pair Nick Byron and Gene Kimlin finished twelfth behind Chinese legends Peng Bo and Kenan Wang.

Still in the water, breaststroker Kieran O'Regan was the only Australian in action on the third night of swimming at the beautiful Manisa Swimming Pool.

O'Regan finished 15th in the men's 100m breaststroke, one place lower than he had qualified after the morning heats when he clocked 1:03.11.

At the Artistic Gymnastics arena, Australian John Jefferis finished 9th (53.062) in the Men's all-around final behind Japan's Hiroyuki (55.998).

In women's volleyball the Australian's found Taipei far too strong in their round robin clash, going down in straight sets (25-10, 25-10, 25-14).

Thomas George was bundled out of the tennis in the second round of men's singles action, losing 1-6, 6-1, 6-3 to Ukrainian sixth seed Serhiy Yarashenko.
