Yokine, W.A. www.wagolfclub.com.au

The Western Australian Golf Club, located 15 minutes from the centre of Perth, is one of the State's most prestigious clubs. Renown for its championship course, the Club hosted the 2004 Western Australian PGA Tournament. Set on 105 acres it offers spectacular views of the city and boasts the highest point on the metropolitan plain. The grounds are expected to be in pristine condition for the AUC Golf in December.

COMPETITION FORMAT

Men's & Women's Individual Championship

A maximum of seven (7) players of either gender from each university may participate.
Format: 54 holes stroke play

Men's & Women's Team Championship

Conducted as part of the individual Championship with only the four (4) best men's individual scores or two (2) best women's individual scores from each university counting towards their respective teams overall point score.

Match Play

Contested only by the four best placed teams from the Teams Championship.
Format: 18 holes match play

The 2005 Australian University Championship - Golf will be conducted in accordance with the competition rules of the Australian Golf Union www.agu.org.au and the AUS Sports Specific Rules. The AUS Golf Rules are available on the AUS website www.unisport.com.au.

Competitors will also be expected to adhere to local course rules including conduct & dress. A copy of The W.A. Golf Club Current Dress Standards has been included in this circular.

GREEN AND GOLD SELECTION

Each participant in an Australian University Sport sanctioned Championship is eligible for Green and Gold selection.

An Australian University Sport "Green and Gold" team is a selected representative team or group of individuals who are acknowledged, recognised and rewarded for outstanding sporting performance at an AUS event. "Green and Gold" teams are selected in accordance with AUS approved sport specific selection criteria and processes and are awarded Medals.

This team is a "paper" team and is NOT automatic selection in a representative fixture or an AUS endorsed tour.
