

2005 AUSTRALIAN UNIVERSITY CHAMPIONSHIP - SAILING
Saturday 26th – Tuesday 29th March 2005
NOTIFICATION OF EVENT CANCELLATION

Melbourne University Sport and the Melbourne University Sailing & Windsurfing Club regret to inform members and their students that the 2005 Australian University Championship – Sailing has been cancelled.

An inability to secure a partner club to assist with the provision of an event headquarters on Port Philip Bay was the main reason for the event's cancellation. Melbourne University Sport and the Melbourne University Sailing & Windsurfing Club wish to thank those members and students that expressed interest in competing in the 2005 event.

To assist future planning of the event, Melbourne University Sport request that interested members, students and/or University clubs respond to the following questions via email to rod.warnecke@unimelb.edu.au.

1. What time of year eg. Semester Two mid-semester break do you think the event should be held in the future?
2. Is a four day event period appropriate for this type of competition?
3. What boat(s) – Tasar, Laser, Sharpie, Pacer for Team Racing - would you sail in if the event was held at your suggested time of year?
4. Would you transport your own boat(s) to compete interstate in this event, or would you prefer the Hosts secure boats for you to hire at a nominal cost?
5. Other suggestions?
