

bp Australia Scholarship Program

Entries open 18 March 2022

For the fourth consecutive year bp Australia will be awarding two $5,000 scholarships to two most promising Indigenous student-athletes (two awards, each of $5,000) to support both their academic and athletic endeavours.

Scholarship recipients will also be offered mentoring and professional development opportunities from bp.

This is part of bp's ongoing partnership with UniSport Australia. In 2022, bp will present the 26th edition of Indigenous Nationals, hosted by Queensland University of Technology from 26-30 June.

Scholarship criteria

To be eligible for this scholarship you must meet the following selection criteria:

1. You must have participated in at least one of the following UniSport events (or plan to in 2022).
  - Indigenous Nationals
  - UniSport Nationals events or leagues
  - FISU (international) events
2. You are a current student of one of 43 member universities with at least one year left of further studies.
3. You have achieved good academic standing (preferably a credit average) and make an active contribution to the community.

Application process

Applications will be judged by a committee consisting of representatives from bp Australia, UniSport Australia and The Wollotuka Institute (The University of Newcastle).

To apply, please submit a letter addressing the scholarship criteria above. Please also include

- What you study
- Your goals after graduation
- Why and how this scholarship will help you

Please also include a letter of support from your university's Indigenous Student Centre or Sport Department.

To submit your application, get your supporting documents ready and click here.

Your application will be shared with the judging committee. Shortlisted candidates will be contacted by bp Australia to arrange an online interview.
