

UniRoos Guideline

Uniform

Each Team member, whether an athlete or official, is reminded that they have agreed, as a condition of their selection/ appointment and as indicated in the athlete's or official's agreement, to wear the issued team uniform under the conditions and for the purposes authorised by UniSport Australia (UniSport). Further, team members are reminded that the uniform is primarily provided to be worn at the event and as such swapping of any uniform items must not occur until after the competition period has ended. Uniform items for the Closing Ceremony must not be swapped until after the Closing Ceremony.

Team members will be provided with a number of uniform items however should also ensure that they bring their own sneakers, white ankle socks and a towel. Team officials should bring their own black pants and black shoes. The following outlines which uniform items should be worn for the various team or event activities:

Travel

Athletes: Polo shirt and track pants

Team officials: Polo shirt and black pants.

Team members are permitted to change into other comfortable clothing during the flight but for the purposes of team assembly, boarding and disembarking from any flights, team members must be dressed in the appropriate team uniform items.

Opening Ceremony

Athletes: Dress shirt and dress shorts

Team officials: Dress shirt and black pants

Competition Venues

Only UniSport approved team uniform should be worn at competition venues regardless of whether the team member is spectating or competing.

Medal Ceremonies

The tracksuit top and pants should be worn at Medal Ceremonies. Any athlete competing in a final should ensure that they have the appropriate uniform items with them for potential medal ceremonies which are likely to be conducted shortly after the conclusion of the final.

Closing Ceremony

Polo shirt and dress shorts

Flag-raising Ceremony

Athletes: Dress shirt and dress shorts

Team Officials: Dress shirt and black pants
