

UniSport Australia Guideline

Taekwondo

Men and Women

UniSport taekwondo competitions are conducted in accordance with the rules of the World Taekwondo \(WT\) as adopted by Australian Taekwondo (AT), except where these differ from UniSport competition guidelines; in which case the latter shall take precedence.

1. Kyorugi sparring competition format

- 1.1. WT (formerly WTF) approved competition rules:
 - a) Kyorugi - WT Competition Rules & Interpretation (January 2023)
- 1.2. The draw for each division shall be made randomly, however an adjustment may be made to prevent contestants of the same university competing in the first round.
- 1.3. Seedings may be used, where possible, for the nationally ranked black belt competitors, to avoid top ranked competitors' meeting in the early rounds.
- 1.4. Weigh in will be held on the day before the start of the sparring competition.
- 1.5. Kyorugi sparring competitor limits:
 - a) Each university can enter a maximum of four competitors per weight division, gender and belt colour grade.
 - b) Each University student competing in the Kyorugi Sparring competition must have a coach with them.

2. Contest duration

- 2.1. The duration of the contest is as per WT rules: However, number of rounds, duration times and rest periods may be amended. The below table shows some examples.

Belt	Men		Women		Rest period
	No. of rounds	Round duration	No. of rounds	Round duration
Black	3	2 minutes	3	2 minutes	60 seconds
Red	3	1 minute 30 secs	3	1 minute 30 secs	30 seconds
Blue	3	1 minute 30 secs	3	1 minute 30 secs	30 seconds
Yellow	3	1 minute 30 secs	3	1 minute 30 secs	30 seconds

3. Weight divisions

- 3.1. There will be four belt colours: yellow, blue, red and black.
- 3.2. Competitors must show proof of belt rank at the weigh in or will be disqualified.
- 3.3. No non-Taekwondo competitors can compete in the Taekwondo sparring event.
- 3.4. Weight divisions are divided as follows:

WT Kyorugi weight categories
Men's divisions	Women's divisions
Under 54kg	Under 46kg
Under 58kg	Under 49kg

WT Kyorugi weight categories
Under 63kg	Under 53kg
Under 68kg	Under 57kg
Under 74kg	Under 62kg
Under 80kg	Under 67kg
Under 87kg	Under 73kg
Over 87kg	Over 73kg

- 3.5. Competitors must enter in their own weight divisions (i.e. what they expect to weigh at the weigh-in). The organising committee may consider an allowance up to a maximum of 500g if contestants wear more than their underwear during weigh-in. Underwear for male competitors is underpants and for female competitors, underwear is underpants and brassiere.
- 3.6. If there are less than four competitors in one weight category, adjoining weight classes may be combined to create a single weight classification. The amalgamation of weight divisions will be at the competition manager's discretion.
- 3.7. If a Kyorugi sparring competitor is uncontested, they may only be moved up one belt or one weight division at the competition manager's discretion, i.e. a yellow belt cannot contest against a red or black belt; or a blue belt can't contest against a black belt and similarly the weight divisions may not be more than one weight division as the above weight division table.

4. Head kick & PSS clarification

- 4.1. The application of head kicks and the use of Electronic PSS (Protector Scoring System) shall be as follows:

Head kicks
Yellow belts	Blue belts	Red belts	Black belts
No	Yes	Yes	Yes

5. Instant Video Replay

- 5.1. Instant Video Replay (IVR) will be available for all matches. If IVR is available, there shall be no protests available.

6. Poomsae competition

- 6.1. WT (formally WTF) approved competition rules.
- 6.2. Only the WT style taekwondo Poomsae will be judged in the traditional recognised taekwondo Poomsae (ie. Taegeuk 1 to Taegeuk 8 plus Koryo, Keumgang, Taebaek, Pyongwon, Shipjin, Jitae, Chonkwon and Hansu).
- 6.3. Poomsae categories contested:
- Individual traditional
Belt colours – from Taegeuk 1 to Taegeuk 8

Yellow belt	Il Jang (1) & Ee Jang (2)
Blue belt	Sam Jang (3) & Sa Jang (4)
Red belt	Yuk Jang (6) & Chil Jang (7)

For the black belt divisions – the system of competition shall be the cut off system and shall comprise the preliminary round, semi-final and then the final. Patterns Two designated compulsory Poomsaes will be drawn by the tournament director for each of the rounds and this will be published within 24 hours of the competition.

Note: the list of Poomsaes to be selected from the below table:

18-30 years	Taegeuk 6, Taegeuk 7, Taegeuk 8, Koryo, Keumgang, Taebaek, Pyongwon, Shipjin

- Determination of rounds:
 - Preliminary round: for 20 or more competitors.
 - Semi-final round: for 9 to 19 competitors
 - Final: for 8 or less competitors.
 - Preliminary round
 - If there are more than 39 competitors, then the division will be split into two groups and each competitor will perform the two designated compulsory Poomsaes. The top 50% of competitors with the highest scores will advance to the semi-final round.
 - Semi-final round
 - Each competitor will perform the two designated compulsory Poomsaes. The top 8 competitors with the highest scores will advance to the final round.
 - Final round
 - Each competitor will perform the two designated compulsory Poomsaes with the top three competitors with the highest scores will be awarded gold, silver and bronze medals.
 - Where there is a tied score, the competitor who has more points in presentation score will be declared the winner. If the score is still tied, then the competitor with the highest total score will be declared the winner. If that is also a tied score, then a rematch shall be conducted to decide the winner. The referee will decide on the Poomsae to be assessed.
 - A minimum of two competitors will constitute a match per division otherwise the division will not be contested. However, a sole contestant in any division may choose to continue competing in their respective division and receive gold on default.
- b) Pairs and teams traditional
